ELLIOTT F. BELGRAVE
Governor-General
30th October, 2015.

2015–28

An Act to amend the Anti-Terrorism Act.

[Commencement: 5th November, 2015]

ENACTED by the Parliament of Barbados as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Anti-Terrorism (Amendment) Act, 2015.

Amendment of section 2 of Cap. 158

2. Section 2 of the Anti-Terrorism Act, Cap. 158, in this Act referred to as the principal Act, is amended

- (a) in the definition of “State or government facility”, by deleting the full-stop and substituting a semi-colon; and*
- (b) by inserting in the appropriate alphabetical order, the following definition:*

““terrorist designation order” means an order of the Court designating a person as a terrorist or terrorist entity.”.

Repeal and replacement of Part IV of Cap. 158

3. Part IV of the principal Act is repealed and the following is substituted:

“PART IV

DESIGNATION OF PERSONS AS TERRORISTS OR TERRORIST ENTITIES

Designation of terrorists and terrorist entities

8.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions may apply to a judge in Chambers for an order designating a person as a terrorist or terrorist entity, as the case may be, where

- (a) the person is included in a list of individuals and entities designated as terrorists or terrorist entities by the United Nations Security Council; or*

- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions has reasonable grounds to believe that the person has committed or participated in the commission of an offence referred to in section 3, 3A or 4.
- (2) An application for a terrorist designation order shall be
- (a) made ex parte; and
 - (b) supported by affidavit deposing to the matters set out in subsection (1)(a) or (b), as the case may be.
- (3) The judge shall make a terrorist designation order against a person where he is satisfied of the circumstances set out in subsection (1)(a) or (b) in relation to the person.
- (4) A person against whom a terrorist designation order is made may, within 60 days of the making of the order, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision of the judge to make the order and shall give the Director of Public Prosecutions at least 14 days' notice of the application.
- (5) The Director of Public Prosecutions may, within 30 days of the decision of a judge not to make a terrorist designation order against a person, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision and shall give such notice to the person as the court may require.
- (6) The Court of Appeal shall, upon an appeal under this section
- (a) hear any evidence or other information that may be presented by the Director of Public Prosecutions and may, at the request of the Director of Public Prosecutions, hear all or part of that evidence or information in the absence of the person concerned or any attorney-at-law representing the person, where the court is of the opinion that the disclosure of the evidence or information would be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;

- (b) provide the person concerned with a statement summarizing the evidence or information available to the court in order to reasonably inform the person of the reasons for the making of the terrorist designation order, without disclosing any evidence or information the disclosure of which would, in the opinion of the court, be prejudicial to national security or endanger the safety of any person;
 - (c) provide the person concerned with a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
 - (d) direct the judge to make, confirm, vary or set aside the terrorist designation order, as the court considers appropriate.
- (7) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Evidence Act, Cap. 121, evidence shall not be excluded on the ground that it is hearsay, of whatever degree, in proceedings for a terrorist designation order or on appeal under this section.

Review of terrorist designation orders

9.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall

- (a) every 6 months review every terrorist designation order made under section 8 in order to determine whether the circumstances referred to in section 8(1)(a) or (b) continue to exist in respect of the person against whom the order was made; and
 - (b) where he determines that such circumstances no longer exist in relation to a person, apply to a judge in Chambers for the variation or revocation of the terrorist designation order relating to that person.
- (2) Upon an application under subsection (1)(b), the judge shall, where he is satisfied that the circumstances leading to the designation of a person as a terrorist or terrorist entity no longer exist, vary or revoke the terrorist designation order relating to the person.

Publication of terrorism designation orders

10.(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall, within 7 days of the decision of a judge in Chambers, whether at first instance or on the order of the Court of Appeal, to make, confirm, vary or set aside a terrorism designation order, cause notice of the decision to be published in the Official Gazette and at least 2 daily newspapers in circulation in Barbados, and may publish such notice electronically.

(2) A notice referred to in subsection (1) shall contain sufficient particulars to enable anyone who may be affected by the decision to be reliably and adequately informed of the decision.”.

Amendment of section 13 of Cap. 158

4. Section 13(a) of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “an application brought under section 8 or 9” and substituting the words “the person in accordance with the Convention”.

Repeal of section 16 of Cap. 158

5. Section 16 of the principal Act is repealed.

Consequential amendments

6. The enactments set out in Column 1 of the Schedule are amended to the extent set out opposite thereto in Column 2.

Transitional provisions

7. Proceedings commenced under this Act prior to the commencement of the Anti-Terrorism (Amendment) Act, 2015 (Act 2015-28) shall, upon the commencement of the Anti-Terrorism (Amendment) Act, 2015 (Act 2015-28)

continue as if the Anti-Terrorism (Amendment) Act, 2015 (Act 2015-28) had not commenced.
