- (2) Orders for the payment of costs may be enforced in the same way as a judgment or order for the payment of a sum of money.

Orders for costs

- 18.2 The Court may make orders for costs of the proceedings giving rise to the appeal as well as the costs of the appeal.

Recovery of costs

- 18.3 A person may not recover the costs relating to an appeal from any other party or person except by virtue of –
- (a) an order of the Court;
 - (b) a provision of these Rules; or
 - (c) an agreement between the parties.

Successful party generally entitled to costs

- 18.4 (1) If the Court decides to make an order for the costs of any proceedings, it shall order the unsuccessful party to pay the costs of the successful party.
- (2) The Court may notwithstanding sub-rule (1) order a successful party to pay all or part of the costs of an unsuccessful party or may make no order as to costs.
- (3) In deciding who should be liable to pay costs, the Court shall have regard to all the circumstances and in particular the Court shall have regard to –

 - (b) whether a party has succeeded on particular issues, even if that party has not been wholly successful in the appeal or proceedings;
 - (c) any offer to settle made by a party drawn to the Court's attention;

 - (d) interest on costs from or until a certain date, including a date before judgment.
- (5) The Court may not make an order under sub-rule (4)(a) or (b) unless it is satisfied that an order under sub-rule (4)(c) would not be more practicable.
- (6) Where the Court orders a party to pay costs, it may make an interim order requiring the paying party to pay a fixed sum on account by a date stated in the order before the costs are taxed.
- (7) Where a party entitled to costs is also liable to pay costs, the Registrar may tax the costs which that party is liable to pay and either –
- (a) set off the amount taxed against the amount the party is entitled to be paid and direct the payment of any balance; or
 - (b) delay the issue of a certificate for the costs to which the party is entitled until the amount which that party is liable to pay is paid.

Two or more parties having the same interest

Costs where money is payable by or to a party who lacks legal capacity

- (a) money is ordered or agreed to be paid to, or for the benefit of, that party; or
 - (b) money is ordered to be paid by or on behalf of that party.
- (2) The Court shall order a taxation of the costs payable to his attorney-at-law by any party who lacks legal capacity.
- (3) On a taxation under sub-rule (2), the Registrar shall also tax any costs payable to that party in the proceedings, unless the Registrar has issued a default costs certificate in relation to those costs under rule 18.24.
- (4) Where –
- (a) an appellant lacks legal capacity; and
 - (b) a taxation has taken place under sub-rule (2)
- the only amount payable by that appellant to his attorney at-law is the amount which the Registrar certifies as payable.

Wasted costs orders

- 18.8 (1) In any proceedings the Court may by order –
- (a) direct the attorney-at-law to pay; or
 - (b) disallow as against the attorney-at-law's client the whole or part of any wasted costs.
- (2) "wasted costs" means any costs incurred by a party –
- (a) as a result of any improper, unreasonable or negligent act or omission on the part of any attorney-at-law or any employee of such attorney-at-law; or

Procedure for wasted costs orders

- 18.9 (1) An application by a party for a wasted costs order shall –
- (a) be supported by evidence on affidavit setting out the grounds on which the application is made; and
 - (b) be served on the attorney-at-law against whom the order is sought.
- (2) Where the Court is minded to make a wasted costs order without an application, the Court shall notify the attorney at-law to that effect.
- (3) A notice under sub-rule (2) shall state –
- (a) the grounds on which the Court is minded to make the order; and

(b) the date, time and place at which the attorney-at-law may attend to show cause why an order should not be made.

(4) The Registrar shall give at least seven (7) days' notice of the hearing of the application to the attorney-at-law against whom the order is sought and to all parties to the proceedings.

Basis of quantification

18.10 (1) Where the Court has a discretion as to the amount of costs to be allowed to a party, the sum to be allowed is the amount –

(a) that the Court deems to be reasonable; and

(b) which appears to the Court to be fair, both to the person paying and the person receiving such costs.

(2) Where the costs to be taxed are claimed by an attorney-at-law from his client, these costs are to be presumed –

(a) to have been reasonably incurred if they were incurred with the express or implied consent of the client;

(b) to be reasonable in amount if their amount was expressly or impliedly approved by the client; and

(c) to have been unreasonably incurred if –

(i) of an unusual nature or amount; or

(ii) the attorney-at-law did not inform his client that the client might not recover them all from the other party.

- (3) In deciding what would be reasonable, the Court shall take into account all the circumstances, including –
- (a) any orders that have already been made;
 - (b) the conduct of the parties before as well as during the proceedings;
 - (c) the importance of the matter to the parties;
 - (d) the time reasonably spent on the matter;
 - (e) whether the cause or matter or the particular item is appropriate for a senior attorney-at-law or an attorney-at-law of specialized knowledge;
 - (f) the degree of responsibility accepted by the attorney-at-law;
 - (g) the care, speed and economy with which the matter was prepared; and
 - (h) the novelty, weight and complexity of the matter.
- (4) In the case of costs charged by an attorney-at-law to his client, the Court shall also take into account –
- (a) any agreement that may have been made as to the basis of charging;
 - (b) any agreement about the seniority of the attorney-at-law who should carry out the work; and
 - (c) whether the attorney-at-law advised the client and took the client's instructions before taking any unusual step or one which was unusually expensive having regard to the nature of the matter.
- (5) The Registrar on taxation may not allow an attorney-at-law less than the rates set out in Schedule 2.

QUANTIFICATION – GENERAL

Ways in which costs are quantified

- 18.11 In all cases where having regard to rule 18.4 the Court orders a party to pay all or any part of the costs of another party, the costs are to be taxed in accordance with rule 18.18 unless –
- (a) those costs have been summarily assessed under rule 18.13 or rule 18.14; and
 - (b) the receiving party has elected to receive basic costs under rule 18.15.

Procedure for quantifying costs

- 18.12 (1) Where the Court orders a party to pay costs to another party it may either –
- (a) make a summary assessment of the costs under rule 18.14; or
 - (b) order that the costs be taxed by the Registrar,
- unless any rule, practice direction or enactment provides otherwise.
- (2) On making an order for costs to be taxed, the Court may order that the paying party pay a specified sum on account of costs by such date as the Court may order.

Assessed costs – interim applications and enforcement

- 18.13 (1) On determining any interim application, the Court shall decide which party, if any, should pay the costs of that application, and may –
- (a) summarily assess the amount of such costs in accordance with rule 18.14; and

- (b) direct when such costs are to be paid.
- (2) In deciding what party, if any, should pay the costs of the application the Court shall take account of all the circumstances including the factors set out in rule 18.4 (3).
- (3) Where the application is –
- (a) one that could reasonably have been made at a case management conference;
 - (b) to extend the time specified for doing any act under these Rules or an order or direction of the Court;
 - (c) to amend a notice of appeal or application; or
 - (d) for relief from sanctions under rule 9.11,
- the Court shall order the applicant to pay the costs of the respondent unless there are special circumstances.

Summary assessment of costs

- 18.14 (1) In summarily assessing the amount of costs to be paid by any party the Court shall take into account any representations as to the time that was reasonably spent in making the application and preparing for and attending the hearing or otherwise dealing with the matter in respect of which costs are to be assessed and must allow such sum as it considers fair and reasonable.
- (2) A party seeking assessed costs shall supply to the Court and to all other parties a brief statement showing –
- (a) the disbursements incurred; and
 - (b) the basis on which the costs of that party's attorney-at-law are calculated.
- (3) In summarily assessing the costs the Court may take into account the basic costs set out in Schedule 2.

Basic Costs

- 18.15 (1) Where a Court has made an order for costs in favour of a party and has not summarily assessed those costs, the receiving party may, instead of seeking a taxation of those costs, elect to recover basic costs in accordance with this rule.
- (2) A receiving party who elects to recover basic costs may file a certificate of costs certifying how such costs are payable in accordance with Schedule 2.
- (3) The certificate may include value added tax on legal fees which the Registrar is satisfied the receiving party has paid or is liable to pay in a Contracting Party.
- (4) The Registrar shall sign the certificate if satisfied that the certificate includes only such items as are appropriate.
- (5) If the Registrar is not satisfied in accordance with sub-rule (4), the Registrar must direct that the receiving party –
- (a) attend before the Registrar; or
- (b) commence taxation proceedings in accordance with rule 18.21.
- (6) The paying party may, within fourteen (14) days of service of the certificate of costs under this rule, apply to the Registrar to amend the certificate, stating the grounds for such amendment.
- (7) The Registrar may direct that –
- (a) receiving and paying parties attend before the Registrar, in which case the certificate of costs may not be enforced until confirmed or amended by the Registrar; or

- (b) the receiving party commence taxation proceedings, in which case the Registrar must revoke the certificate of costs.

Attendance of more than two attorneys-at-law at hearing

- 18.16 On assessing the amount of basic costs under rule 18.15 or taxing a bill of costs under rule 18.18, no fee may be allowed for the attendance at the hearing of more than two attorneys-at-law, unless the Registrar is satisfied that it would be reasonable, having regard to the matters set out in rule 18.10, to allow such fee.

Time for complying with an order for costs

- 18.17 A party shall comply with an order for the payment of costs within fourteen (14) days of –
- (a) the date of the judgment or order if it states the amount of those costs; or
