Cap. 167.

POLICE (TRAFFIC (RACES AT GARRISON SAVANNAH)) RULES, 1965

Made by the Commissioner of Police with the approval of the Minister under section 23 of the Police Act.

Cap. 167.

1. (1) These Rules may be cited as the Police (Traffic (Races at Garrison Savannah)) Rules, 1965.

(2) These rules shall apply to the control of traffic on the occasions when horse races are held at the Garrison Savannah.

2. For the purposes of these rules, "vehicles" includes motor vehicles, bicycles, carts, carriages, hand-carts, and all other machines used for the portage of persons or goods.

3. The Garrison Road (that is the road around the Garrison Savannah) shall be one-way to all vehicles.

4. The drivers, riders, or persons in charge of vehicles travelling on the Garrison Road shall proceed in one direction only and shall keep the Savannah on their right.

5. Drivers, riders, or persons in charge of vehicles shall at once obey any order given by a member of the Police Force in uniform.
