REMISSION, CONDITIONAL RELEASE AND DISCHARGE

Calculation of term of sentence

(2) A prisoner who, but for this subsection, would be discharged on a Sunday, Christmas Day or Good Friday, shall be discharged on the day next preceding.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, a person committed to prison in default of payment of a sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction shall be treated as undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for the term for which he is committed; and consecutive terms of imprisonment shall be treated as one term.

Remission

52.(1) Rules made under section 66 may make provision whereby, in such circumstances as may be prescribed by such rules, a person serving a sentence of imprisonment for such a term as may be so prescribed may be granted remission of such part of that sentence as may be prescribed on the ground of his industry and good conduct, and on the discharge of a person from prison in pursuance of any such remission his sentence shall expire.

(2) Where it appears to the Minister that a person serving a sentence of imprisonment was under the age of 21 years at the commencement of his sentence he may direct that instead of being granted remission of his sentence under such rules he shall, at any time on or after the day on which he could have been discharged if the remission had been granted, be released on a supervision order under this section.

(3) A person released on a supervision order under this section shall, until the expiration of his sentence, be under the supervision of such society or person as may be specified in the order and shall comply with such other requirements as may be so specified: but the Minister may at any time modify or cancel any such requirements.

(4) Where before the expiration of his sentence the Minister is satisfied that a person released on a supervision order has failed to comply with any requirement for the time being specified in the order, he may by order recall him to prison; and thereupon that person shall be liable to be detained in prison until the expiration of his sentence and, if at large, shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large.

(5) The Minister may release on a supervision order a person detained in a prison under subsection (4) at any time before the expiration of his sentence; and subsections (3) and (4) shall apply in the case of a person released under this subsection as they apply in the case of a person released under subsection (2).

(6) Where the unexpired part of the sentence of a person released under subsection (2) is less than 6 months, subsections (3) to (5) shall apply to him subject to the following modifications

- (a) the period for which he is under supervision under subsection (3) and is liable to recall under subsection (4) shall be a period of 6 months from the date of his release under subsection (2);
