

Telecommunications

Cap. 282B.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS (DELEGATION OF POWERS AND DUTIES) ORDER, 2004

2004/165

Authority: This Order were made on 30th December, 2004 by the Minister under section 5 of the Telecommunications Act.

Commencement: 13th January, 2005.

1. This Order may be cited as the Telecommunications (Delegation of Powers and Duties) Order, 2004.

2. The Minister hereby delegates the following powers to the Chief Telecommunications Officer:

- (a) the granting of the following licences:
 - (i) video rental service licences;
 - (ii) dealer's licences;
 - (iii) cyber café licences;
 - (iv) call centre licences;
 - (v) international submarine cable licences;
 - (vi) licences for services where adequate spectrum exists for those services or for services where frequencies have been assigned to those services;
- (b) the granting of value added domestic voice services; and
- (c) the granting of all radiocommunications licences except licences relating to trunking and data communications;
- (d) the power to deal with all matters involving spectrum management under Part IX of the Act;

- (e) the power to deal with all matters pertaining to numbering under Part X of the Act; and
- (f) the power to prescribe certification standards and to establish an equipment certification programme under Part XI of the Act.